

Indian Toys and Tools Family Workshops

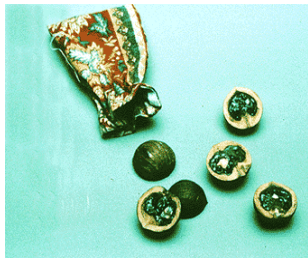

Sign up for one or both workshops!

Part One – Saturday, July 29, 2006

Part Two – Saturday, September 23, 2006

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. both days

Families: Come experience how the local Indians lived, worked, and played! Make some of their toys and tools as you learn more about how they survived and thrived here for thousands of years. Each of these family workshops is $5.00 for an individual or just $10.00 for a family, which includes all supplies and activities.

Part One – Saturday, July 29:

- Weave a reed doll to play with at home.
- Decorate and practice using a rabbit stick.
- Make walnut dice and learn how to play with them.
- Learn how to use a pump drill, then bore holes in shells with it.
- Create a beautiful shell rattle to make your own rhythm instrument.

Register by July 26!

Part Two – Saturday, September 23:

- Grind corn with a real mano and metate.
- Make a stick game to play with your family and friends.
- Learn how to make yucca cordage, then wind some of your own rope.
- Assemble and decorate a beautiful gourd rattle with authentic designs.
- Practice your hand-eye coordination after you make a hoop and stick game.

Register by Sept. 20!

These Family Workshops are sponsored by the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians and the Museum Education Division.

Complete this form and return with payment before the deadline above. Reservations will be accepted in order of their receipt.
